

AH GUM,

HER RESCUE, AND HER SUCCESS-
OR'S GILDED FATE.

How Lun Yang Consoled Himself
for the Loss of His Chattel—A Glimpse of a Prevalent and Awful Human Slavery.

The case of the Chinese woman, Ah Gum, having attracted some attention, a TIMES reporter yesterday went down to Sanchez street, where the woman had lived with her husband, Lun Yang, and meeting there Officer Appel, was shown by the officer the place where the beating occurred, and introduced to an intelligent Chinaman, who proceeded to explain the whole matter to him.

It appears that Ah Gum was one of those unfortunate creatures who, instead of being the wife of the man with whom they live, is nothing but his slave, and is sold to him as a piece of merchandise, for her market value. Her business was to attract other Chinamen there and get all the money she could from them, turning it over to her master when they had left the house.

Ah Gum had unfortunately taken a fancy to another Chinaman, or he had taken a fancy to her, and in this manner provoked the rage of her master, who chastised her or her non-attention to business. This, in addition to the dislike Ah Gum had of her mode of living, led to her leaving the man and seeking the protection of the police. Yesterday night, after having been beaten by Lun Yang until she was covered with welts and almost fainting with pain, she left her house, and calling Officer Appel, managed to make him understand how she had been ill-treated.

The officer advised her to go to the police station and have a warrant issued to arrest her master for his cruelty, and the woman walked off, apparently understanding his directions, while he kept a watch on the house of her master to see that he did not escape until another officer could come to serve the warrant. Having remained there as long as he dared stay off his beat, Mr. Appel found that the woman was not likely to return, and left the place.

The officer had no sooner turned his back, than Lun Yang, looking out and seeing the coast was clear, posted an elaborate poster in Chinese characters in his windows, which the reporter's informant stated was a notice to the effect that Ah Gum had left his house without his consent, and no other Chinaman must give her shelter or assistance. In addition to this announcement, there was also appended an invitation to his friends to call on him at a later hour, and he would present for their inspection a beauty whose charms rivaled those of the sun, whose figure was as graceful as the flowers, and her voice as enchanting as the song of the bird.

He stated that he had, at an enormous expense, secured a new slave, and that she would be "at home" to all his friends later in the evening.

About two hours after this notice had been posted, Lun Yang was seen to be easy in his house, with his wife, wearing various silks and satins and jewelry. Presently he came into the outer room, bearing a large easy chair, which he placed in position, with its back to the street. He then lit a number of colored lanterns, and arranged them about the room so that a soft subdued light fell on the front of the chair.

This done, perfume and essences were strewn about the room, and then retiring to the back room, he reappeared with the new beauty and seated her in the chair.

Ge Lee was the name of this ravishing beauty, and as the Chinese idea of perfection in woman is usually confined to the foot of the fair one, it must be acknowledged that Ge Lee was in this respect without a rival. Seated in her chair, with her back toward the outside world, she looked as if she were back hair to fall over the back of the chair in great profusion, reaching to the floor. At the end of the hair was a splendid jewel and a ribbon, so attached to her locks as to gather them together at the bottom, so as to distinguish the arrangement from that of mourning, on which occasion the hair is allowed to fall loose.

As soon as all these preliminary arrangements were completed, the door of the room was opened and the eager throng of Chinamen who had waited outside very patiently, crowded into the room and shook hands with the new slave, no doubt congratulating her upon her beautiful appearance and promising to call around often after she had become acquainted with them by the means of this ceremony. The woman appeared to enjoy all this adulation, and seemed to enter on the life as though it were that of the utmost ease and comfort.

The show was kept up until a late or rather early hour, it being morning before the last guest left. Lun Yang does not seem to care about the absence of Ah Gum, except that she had cost him considerable money, and he does not relish having to lose that. He stated to the reporter that he had paid $2000 for her, but that he had got that amount back before she ran away. The new slave had cost him more, how much he would not say, but he did not intend to treat her so badly as he had poor Ah Gum, because, as he said, Ge Lee was "a belly much good girl."

AH GUM CARED FOR.

Ah Gum was taken in charge by Mrs. Watson yesterday, and she will be sent to Mr. Gibson's Chinese Mission at her own request. Yesterday she was apparently very happy at the new turn of events, her only wish being that no heathen be allowed to see her.

Yesterday noon six almond-eyed beauties, dressed in the police office and, after paying their respects to Officer McKee, who was in charge, politely asked that they be allowed to see Mrs. Lun Yang. They were politely answered by the affable McKee, that madame was not at home.

THE FORCE.

President of Council Breed Makes Some Remarks.

L. N. Breed, President of Council, was seen by a TIMES reporter yesterday regarding Chief Skinner's resignation. Mr. Breed was somewhat reticent and very guarded in his utterances. He expressed regret at the resignation of the Chief, and it was from this cause that he was anxious to have the matter tabled for one week at the last meeting of the Council, as he had hoped the Chief might be induced to reconsider his action and withdraw his resignation. "This, however, he has refused to do, saying his action in the matter is final, so I suppose we have gained nothing by tabling the matter for one week. I am quite sure the Chief's resignation results from no cause on the part of the commissioners, as I was friendly to him and entertained high regard for him, and I am sure the same sentiment is common to others."

Reference was made to the ever-ready office-seekers who are always so numerous on such occasions, but Mr. Breed did not know of any one who was likely to be the successor of Mr. Skinner, "though," he said, "prominent mention has been made of Capt. Harty, but nothing definite can be done in that direction until the Chief's resignation has been disposed of. At first it was the intention to accept the resignation of the Chief and appoint Capt. Tyler Chief pro tem, but the difference of opinion between the members of the commission prevented this."

"We have an efficient Clerk now," continued Mr. Breed, "in the person of Mr. Moffit, who succeeds Mr. Clarke in that capacity. Mr. Moffit is an old acquaintance of mine, but his appointment did not result from favoritism, as I recommended him, because I knew him to be a capable business man of fact and energy, and eminently qualified to discharge the duties of the office in a manner which will reflect credit upon himself and the force."

In Good Hands at Last.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society has secured three of Mrs. Oliver's children and placed them in the Orphan Asylum. The $1.25 paid into THE TIMES office as subscriptions in aid of Mrs. Oliver has been given to the Ladies' Benevolent Society, and they will place it with other funds and devote it to building the mother a home at Compton, where she has gone to live with her mother. She has signed a paper giving the ladies of the society the control of the children, and the little ones will now receive the care and attention they have so long been without.

The sack was interrupted in the midst of his movements and taken in by an unsympathizing officer. The goods belonged to Chronis Bros. M. Choniz, a native of the same country, identified the cans from the fact that he has had them on hand for three or four years, and as they were marked with fly-specks he readily recognized them. Camacho was found guilty of petty larceny, and a fine of $100 was imposed with the alternative of 100 days in jail.

THE SAN DIMAS TRACT!

300 Acres, in Lots of From 5 to 40 Acres, :-

TO SUIT PURCHASERS, ARE SELLING AT

FROM $150 TO $400 PER ACRE!

THIS FINE PROPERTY IS MOST BEAUTIFULLY SITUATED AT the foot of Sierra Madre Mountains on California Central Railroad, only twenty-five miles from Los Angeles, and one mile and a half from the flourishing town of Lordsburg.

THE SOIL OF THIS TRACT

Will grow luxuriantly all the fruits, citrus and deciduous, known to our semi-tropic climate

ESPECIALLY THE ORANGE,

WHOSE TREES ARE FREE FROM SCALE, and whose fruit is abundant in yield and bright in color, and of delicious flavor. THE FAMOUS MUSCAT GRAPES, the finest table and raisin-making grape in the world, as well as the best varieties of wine-producing grapes flourish on this land. LARGE CROPS OF ALFALFA, of vegetables, and of all the cereals respond to the hand of industry on this FERTILE SAN DIMAS TRACT.

IN POINT OF WATER SUPPLY

It is, perhaps, the most favored of any tract in the county. THE SAN JOSE LAND AND WATER COMPANY, who are the owners, and under whose auspices this splendid tract is put on the market, guarantee at least one inch of pure water to each ten-acre tract sold. This is

PIPED DIRECTLY FROM SAN DIMAS CREEK,

A NEVER-FAILING, SNOW-FED MOUNTAIN STREAM, whose crystal waters are supplemented by living springs adjacent to the tract. As a means of facilitating this abundant supply of water, the company are now excavating a tunnel of 80 feet in length to drain the under-current of the San Dimas Creek, and to be used as a conduit from their mammoth reservoir in the mountains. The capacity of this

MOUNTAIN RESERVOIR IS 150 MILLIONS OF GALLONS.

The geographical situation of the tract is beautifully picturesque. Every acre commands the splendid scenery of San Gabriel, Santa Ana and other valleys, with the super mountain ranges from the coast to San Bernardino, that, towering over each other, frame in the varying pictures of which PASADENA, POMONA, PALMDALE, LORDBURG and SAN DIMAS are the pleasant centers. Taking the

SOIL, CLIMATE, WATER-SUPPLY AND SCENERY

Of this tract, its RAILROAD FACILITIES, nearness to market and the social, moral and educational advantages tributary to its surroundings, together with the VERY LOW PRICE PER ACRE for which it can be bought, it may safely be said that it offers inducements for investment

REAL ESTATE is flying in Santa Barbara, and it has climbed up to such prices that they ought to be looking out for insurance against dust storms there now. Dirt is too costly for such things any longer.

THE Chicago Inter Ocean makes note of railroad activity in Southern California, and speaks cheerfully of the new life of this section. That paper has always been an intelligent friend of this great southern country.

THE amicable settlement of the difficulty between the striking iron-workers and their employers, the Baker Iron Works, is a subject for mutual congratulations. Whether the adjustment is permanent remains to be seen.

THE Philadelphia Press, which is edited by a personal friend of Mr. Blaine, says that "only in response to a genuine and practically unanimous demand from the Republicans of the nation will he accept a nomination in 1898."

It is reported that a new Democratic illustrated paper is to be started in New York, and that Nast is to have charge of the caricature department. The Republicans might offset his work by republishing some of his caricatures on the Democratic party.

THE movement for securing the erection of a grand hotel, adequate to the needs of the city, goes on apace. Among the sites offered we do not see that of St. Vincent's square, the present location of army headquarters. It would be a "dandy" place for a fine hotel.

EX-MAYOR Wickham, of New York, tells a Western paper that Gov. Hill has lost his opportunity by not antagonizing the President with boldness, that Mr. Cleveland is in bad odor with the party generally and that Secretary Whitney is the man who can carry New York for the Democrats.

A SEVERE accident, caused by a runaway team, befell Gen. Nelson A. Miles, at Santa Monica yesterday. The gallant officer had an ankle broken, and sustained several bruises besides. His recovery will be hoped for by a host of friends throughout the country which he has served so long and so well.

THE Chicago Tribune denounces in terms of righteous indignation the "servants' hat battle" which has been cabled to this country about the movements of Mr. Blaine by the hired man of the Chicago News, sent to dog his footsteps and listen at his keyhole. The keyhole style of journalism will not win.

THERE is great need for more houses in this city—comfortable tenements suitable to the needs of the average respectable family, and which can be had at a moderate rental. The present scarcity is serious, and, unless relieved, must inevitably result in loss of population, by keeping away persons who would otherwise make their homes here and become contributors to the city's productive power. We cannot afford this. More capital invested in residence property will be well placed. The whole monied population cannot safely turn itself loose on the town-let speculation. That sort of thing is for a day. The permanent upbuilding of the city is a work for all time.

A Word of Truth.

There is too great a tendency in this age to run after new religious ideas and forms of worship and to abandon the earlier teachings and principles of Christianity; to fall in with the new-fangled notions of revolutionary sects whose practices are not always in keeping with the fundamental teachings of religious truth. The so-called religion that would lead a woman, like Mrs. Reeder, of the Salvation Army, to neglect her children and leave them utterly uncared for, is not of the sort that commends itself to the public mind, for it is not based upon that divinity of all precepts—Do unto others as ye would that they should do unto you. The words of the apostle are no less true today than when they were first uttered almost nineteen hundred years ago. "He that provideth not for those of his own household is worse than an infidel."

What is that gospel worth to a community which winks at such practices as lead to the utter neglect of family obligations, and makes the heart callous to the needs of those whose by nature made dependent upon it. Such a gospel would render a community morally bankrupt, and paralyze every effort for the general good.

If the Salvation Army was cognizant of this neglect, and still holds this woman in the bonds of religious fellowship, it does not speak well for the principles by which its members are actuated, or the conscience by which they are controlled.

To one knowing the weakness of human nature, and its constant tendency to err, the claim which some of its members, if not the entire body, set up of perfect individual holiness, does not argue well for their knowledge of their own habits. Struggle as we may for the right, we are often compelled to say with Paul, the prince of apostles, "The good that I would do I do not, and when I would do good evil is present with me." The world may pretty safely determine that it will not trust those who claim for themselves perfect holiness. The sect is not new, although its methods of attracting public attention may be. In an ancient book there is a story of one of their sect, beginning something like this: "Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a Publican." Every student of that book is familiar with the account given. It is a story which has been repeated through the ages, and will continue to be repeated while the Pharisee and the Publican continue to exist, no matter what name they may bear. There is a wide difference between religious fanaticism and religious faith. The former is always at war against the latter. The first, the intelligent thinker deprecates, the latter forever demands his trust and reverence.

Wanted—A Chief of Police.

The Council has to make a new chief of police a week hence. The importance of the office is conceded, the difficulty of finding just the man to fill it is also admitted. A peculiar and rather rare combination of qualities is required in the man who is to fill this office successfully. He must have first of all, intelligence, alertness, quick decision, self-control, nerve and capacity to command men. He who would command others must first be able to hold himself down. He should be a man without fear and without reproach, a gentleman, incorruptible and absolutely devoted to his duty. He should have self-abnegation, endurance, fortitude. He ought, if possible, to be a man of some experience in police or similar duties, with the detective quality well developed. There is work, hard work, fine work, for the head of the police department to do. The town is big and pitted with the criminal element. The vicious classes abound and are always at work. They need constant holding down. The police force, properly handled, are equal to the task. All law-abiding people will hope for success in the Council's hunt for a good man to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Chief of Police Skinner.

The glory of Henry Grady, the Georgia newspaper man, seems destined to be short-lived. Some of the home newspapers have discovered that the supposed great thoughts to which he gave expression last winter at a New York dinner were stolen from the writings of Bill Arp, and now Senator Maxey, of Texas, says the new South idea is all humbug of the worst kind; that the South of today is the same South that it has always been, and has the same blood and the same sentiments. We believe it.

THE Chattanooga Times (Dem.) says tartly that "Mr. Glenn's idiotic bill" passes it "will be no small card for the Republicans in the North in the next Presidential campaign," and it expresses the opinion that "a few such foolish and tyrannical measures as this put through Southern Legislatures might assure New York and Connecticut to the Republicans beyond a doubt." The Glenn bill is a Georgia measure making it a chain-gang offense for a college professor to teach the colored idea how to shoot.

EVIDENCES of an increasing fraternal spirit between the American and Mexican people continue to multiply. The American colony in the City of Mexico and American Minister Manning have announced their intentions of participating in the celebration of the Mexican National holiday, September 16th. This is the first time in the history of the two Republics that has been done. It is matter for congratulation. The 16th of September is dear to the Mexican heart. The day is his Fourth of July.

THE Chicago Inter Ocean has this sensible word of advice to those engaged in the industry of canning the great supplies of fruit in this State, which it will be wise to heed: "If California fruit-canners want to get into the market with their goods and lay the foundations for future business as well as present prosperity, they will not post their prices too high. Canned fruit is an article the public can easily do without, and when prices double up it is just what they will do."

THE Brooklyn Eagle says that the Administration has done as much and perhaps more than any that has gone before for the Grand Army, as it disburses nearly $100,000,000 a year to the veterans, upon which the Boston Journal says: "There has been an impression that the Administration was merely executing the pension laws in making that disbursement, but now the public knows that the Administration pays it out of its own pocket."

MAYOR O'BRIEN'S defense of his presence at the Sullivan slugging testimonial reminds the Chicago Tribune of a bald-headed old colonel out West who was reproached for having attended a cheap show, the performer in which were chiefly distinguished by their scanty raiment. Drawing himself up with great dignity, the Colonel explained that he attended the performance merely for the purpose of "frowning it down."

THE Chicago Inter Ocean says that "Indiana is practically on Henry George's platform." It has not a dollar in the treasury and lots of debts to pay. "It is not pleasant platform to stand on when you come down to real practical everyday life. It may sound beautiful on paper, but it doesn't stand the test of experience."

WHEN the LOS ANGELES TIMES learned that twenty-one carloads of people arrived in one day it found that "it begins to look like a boom." How many carloads will it take, in the estimation of THE TIMES, to constitute an unmistakable, full-grown, live boom? (San Jose Times.)

San José should not be puffed up by a little thing like twenty-one carloads of people.

THE rumor is abroad in New Mexico that Governor General Julian is to leave the glorious climate of the sun-kissed Territory for good; whereas a great many people of all classes and parties lift up their voices and rejoice. Julian is another of the humbug reformers of Cleveland's administration.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE BACK FLAG.—Last night Edwin Thorne appeared in the well-known favorite, The Back Flag. Mr. Thorne's chief claims to favor rest upon the possession of a fine physique, a pleasant voice, absence of rant, and the enunciation of the highly moral sentences with which the play is heavily burdened.

Mr. Thorne's company is of fair merit, his leading lady—Rose Harrison—being a remarkably pretty girl, with masses of indigenous blonde hair, a plump and pleasing figure, and delicate hands abominably over-loaded with rings, big little and medium. The by no means secondary part of "Sim Lazarus" was sufficiently funny to those who have never seen the inimitable Nat Goodwin in the same role. The villain, I. M. Brophy—presented the refreshingly novel spectacle of wickedness of indigo hue beneath a handsome, cordial and theological exterior, with less than usual of the villain's gurgles, starts, and eye-rolling, "for which relief, much thanks." Mr. Thorne repeats The Back Flag on Monday night, and should be promptly and wholly suppressed, unless the Opera House is to be nothing more than a country theater, where the gallery rules, regardless of the ears or the nerves of those who pay more for their seats and have some rights.

Gov. Bartlett's Condition Unchanged—Detectives on a Still Hunt After Train Robbers—News From the Arctic—County Assessments to Be Held.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] On the 30th of last month Fire Commissioners Slater and Conran met at the latter's residence because of his serious illness, and elected Assistant Chief Engineer O'Meara chief-engineer of the fire department in place of Chief Con Sullivan, his term having expired. Several other changes were made. Commissioner Griffith, the oldest member of the board, resigned, refusing to participate on the ground that the sick room was not the regular meeting place.

Tonight Commissioners Slater and Griffith held a somewhat lively talk at the regular meeting room. Conran, who is still seriously ill, was not present. It developed that Griffith had abstracted the minute-book from the secretary's desk during the month, which prevented the secretary from entering the proceedings of the meeting which elected Chief Engineer O'Meara.

Griffith refused to produce the missing book, and the reason the secretary did not do any business unless the book was produced. Griffith, who is president of the board, then declared the meeting adjourned until next month, though Slater objected. Slater and Conran have called a special meeting for tomorrow, at the latter's home, where they will allow the pay-roll.

VITICULTURAL.

California's Share in the Total Wine Production.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] Chief Viticultural Officer Wheeler has produced some statistics of the grape crop of the United States for this year. The figures embrace the grape crop of thirty-nine States and Territories. Placing the California yield at 16,000,000 gallons, this State will have 62 per cent. of the average crop. Twenty-nine States report less than 92 per cent., while nine States and Territories have over 92 per cent., and they are Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Florida, Wisconsin, North Dakota, New York, New Mexico and Utah. Massachusetts and New Mexico are the only ones which report a full crop. The yield of States that will influence the eastern market are: New York, 96 per cent.; Missouri, 86 per cent.; Ohio, 78 per cent. The yield of seven other States which deserve mention is: Illinois, 75 per cent.; Indiana, 80 per cent.; Kansas, 75 per cent.; New Mexico, 100 per cent.; Michigan, 90 per cent.; Virginia, 90 per cent.; and California, 62 per cent. The production of wine for 1887 east of the Rocky Mountains will be 87 per cent. of the average or about 5,000,000 gallons, which will be just one-half of the yield of California alone. The Viticultural Committee has sent out letters to all of the viticulturists of the world, asking for samples of their wine in order to compare them with the products of California vineyards.

COUNTY ASSESSMENTS.

Figures Likely to be Raised—Los Angeles Asks for a Reduction.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The State Board of Equalization has cited representatives of a number of counties to appear before September 24 and 25th, and show cause why the assessments of their respective counties should not be increased. The counties specified are Butte, Sacramento, Sutter, Solano, Yuba, Colusa, American, Eldorado, Kern, Lake, Contra Costa, Mendocino, Monterey, San Benito, Alameda, Sonoma, Santa Cruz, Fresno, Merced, San Joaquin, San Mateo, Ventura, San Francisco, San Luis Obispo, Stanislaus, Lassen, Plumas, Sierra, Siskiyou, Shasta, Tehama and Humboldt. The supervisors of these counties have applied for a reduction of the assessment of that county. The assessment of the county has increased 140 per cent. over that of last year. The petition will be heard September 12th.

A FATAL SHOT.

THE Folly of Playing With Pistols Again Illustrated.

RED BLUFF, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] Yesterday afternoon Mrs. B. H. Mooney, a daughter of a railroad bridge builder, was fatally shot by her brother-in-law, John Mooney, a young man 17 years old. He was playing with his 2-year-old niece, and while doing so picked up a pistol which was lying near and began taking the cartridges therefrom. When he thought the pistol unloaded, he pointed it toward Mrs. Mooney, saying to the little one: "I am going to shoot mamma." The little child ran toward her mother, and as she reached her a report rang out and Mrs. Mooney fell. The ball took effect in the back of her neck close to the jugular vein and vertebrae. The latter came out, and the unfortunate young wife died this afternoon. The young man is grief-stricken by his fatal shot, and, a young farmer, is almost distracted.

SAND-BAGGED.

Rough Experience of a Wells-Fargo Clerk at Marysville.

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] Clerk Gassaway, who was sand-bagged on Monday morning by being forced to open the safe of Wells-Fargo & Co., recovered sufficiently to make a statement to the detectives today. He said that he came from the Oregon express at 5:50 p.m., entered the office as usual, and when inside, two masked men, who were seated in the office, presented guns at his head and ordered him to open the safe. He complied, and while they were going through the safe he attempted to get into his bedroom, where he had a pistol. As he entered the door, a third man, who was hidden there, struck him with something that knocked him down. After this he knew nothing more.

Whalers Having Good Luck—Movements of the Bear.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The whaling bark Thomas Pope arrived from Point Hope, Alaska, today, and reports that the catch of the fleet up to July 19th was fifty-eight whales. The catch thus far is satisfactory to the owners. It is doubtful if any of the vessels return before the middle of October, and the steamers may not get in for a month later.

The cutter Bear was not seen at Point Hope. There is no prospect of obtaining further news from the Arctic until the Bear returns, which it is thought will be in about a month.

The Wheat Tangle Not Yet Settled—Justifiable Homicide—Berk Gives Himself Up—A Little Searcher's Bill.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The amount of business in the Produce Exchange is limited at present. The Board of Directors is engaged in solving the problem of holding the remainder of the wheat deposit made by Dresbach and Rosenfeld for account of members of the board free from the demands of outside creditors. That is the reason the delinquent have not been sold out, as that step would free them from the lien of the board and give other creditors a chance to step in and claim their share of the deposit. It is believed that some definite conclusion will soon be reached and that a settlement on the basis of what on hand will be made so far as it will go around. As the losses are scattered in many different quarters and are not in large amounts, there are some chances that the difficulty will be laid over without involving any serious failures.

The creditors of William Dresbach and John Rosenfeld met this afternoon and appointed a committee to confer with the Board of Directors of the Call Board to the best means of disposing of 6000 tons of wheat, held by the creditors as security. The committee was instructed to report whether it should be sold or divided.

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE.

The Coroner held an inquest today in the case of Joseph M. Wilson, the colored hostler who was shot and killed on Saturday night by John H. Penman, the Colorado horseman. The jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

COLLECTOR HAGER WILL APPEAL. United States Attorney Carey, after a thorough investigation, has reached the conclusion that an appeal can be taken in the case of E. W. McLean against Collector Hager, which was decided adversely to the Government last week. The action involves the right to collect duty on opium prepared in transit, and the Collector has Treasury regulations to bear him out. The principle involved is considered too important to be left to the whimsical action of a single collector, and the Attorney-General for instructions as to the best course to pursue.

Two Heavy Philadelphia Firms Go Under—A Rich Syndicate Investigating the Accounts of its Manager Who Has Begone Wealthy—Other Eastern News.

By Telegraph to The Times.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The Republican's Santa Fé special says: Two years ago Albert A. Mead came from Iowa and located mines at Great Hope near Tres Piedras, N. M. A short time after the location of the mines, Mead, in company with Fred and Harvey Mead, his kinsmen from Alledo, Ill., and Frank Reidel and G. Smith, of Chicago, incorporated the property under the laws of Illinois, under the name of the Las Lucas Milling and Mining Company. A mill was erected and the mines worked until a few months ago, when Albert Mead became dissatisfied, claiming that the company was attempting to wind him out of his share of the property. He brought suit to regain possession of the property and went to Santa Fé to live. On Wednesday he left Santa Fé for Meadville Camp for the purpose of securing papers he had left in the company's bunk house and which were needed in his suit.

Mead first made known his presence to Fred and Mr. Hands, who were in Tres Piedras yesterday. Finally, the two returned to camp. When their team was within about fifty yards of the company's cabin, Albert stepped out from behind the brush, Winchester in hand, and ordered Mead to get out. He called: "Hands up," and ordered them to call Harvey Mead and Joe Downing out of the cabin, saying that he desired them to keep out of the cabin, until he (Albert) could search for some papers and money which he had concealed therein. Hands and Downing, however, did not heed the command and both came out of the cabin. As they approached, Albert fired and Downing fell dead. A second shot from his Winchester killed Harvey Mead. Turning toward the wagon, Albert then opened fire on the occupants, his third shot fatally wounding Hands. By this time Fred Mead had secured a six-shooter at which Hands had attempted to fire at Albert Mead, but the weapon snapped and could not be discharged. Albert fired at Fred five times, in rapid succession, and while he was thus engaged, Fred Mead was running toward the wagon, and a struggle ensued for possession of the weapon of death. At last, Fred Mead got the Winchester from Albert, and with it shot him through the head. Hands died five hours later. Albert A. Mead's body was buried face downward, and the remains of the other three were buried at Tres Piedras. The Coroner's investigation resulted in the acquittal of Fred Mead.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] Commercial-Gazette prints a communication from Senator Sherman making a denial of the views alleged to have been expressed by him on the fishery question to Senator Ogilvie, of the Dominion Government. He says: "I had a conversation with Senator Ogilvie in the presence of a number of gentlemen, in which I took an exactly opposite position; that while the Canadian fishermen of the commercial rights to seek and buy bait and supplies in a Canadian port, was inconsistent with the civilized and generous policy of modern commercial nations, and that it should be promptly abandoned as the best preparation for more intimate commercial relations between the United States and the Dominion Government."

LONDON, Aug. 30.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] In the vote for the Irish secretary's office T. M. Healy denounced Balfour as an ignorant Scotchman and careless of the duties of the office. He made a violent attack on Col. King-Harman, the Under-Secretary, and was called to order for referring to him as a "convict." He also said that King-Harman had committed 500 murders for Orangemen.

At this point Col. King-Harman entered the House and denied the allegations made by Healy. The debate was becoming so heated that the chairman called them both to order. Mr. Healy resumed the attack, and said that he blamed the government for appointing a notorious law-breaker and released convict. Col. King-Harman appealed to the chair, and Mr. Healy repeated the phrase with emphasis, but afterwards withdrew the expression.

Proposed Line from Los Angeles to San Jacinto—Colton's Ambition.

—Cohen's Efforts to Bolster Central Pacific.

By Telegram to The Times.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 30.—By the Associated Press. It is understood that a survey will shortly be made by a St. Louis syndicate for a new railroad from Los Angeles to San Jacinto, and from there on southward, crossing the head waters of Santa Margarita, passing near Oak Grove, through Valle de San Jose and Santa Isabel and on to Bala. From the latter point the line will probably keep to the southward, tapping the Costa Madera Valley before bearing to the westward for San Diego. From Los Angeles to San Jacinto the distance is about one hundred miles, and the company will be given at least $300,000 in subsidies. From San Jacinto to San Diego the distance over the route proposed will be about 150 miles. Between these points the company will receive large subsidies in the shape of land.

The Colton Land and Water Company recently sold and transferred its interest, through Alexander McBean, to A. V. Bills, and Messrs. It is believed to be the intention of the company to make Colton more of a railroad center than it is now.

He furnished a table of figures showing that all the above sum had been used by the completion of the road, and he was of opinion that this was an effective answer to the charge made on several occasions that President Stanford and his associates had made $100,000,000 by the road with and from the Government.

New Version of the Cause of the Late Rising.

How the Indians Were Plundered by Cowboys and Settlers.

Gen. Terry Intimates that the Colorado Authorities are to Blame.

Reports from Two Sources Declare that the Utes are Back on the Reservation, While Other Advises Say the Band is on the Wapah.

By Telegram to The Times.

DENVER (Colo.), Aug. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The following was received today from Glenwood Springs, Colo., under date of Aug. 29th:

To Col. Chapman, Assistant Adjutant General, Denver: Phil Foote has just come in. He left Meeker at 7:30 this morning, and brings no dispatches, as a courier left half an hour ahead of him. A messenger has just reached Meeker just before Foote left, who reports that the Indians were moving east from Rangely, where the troops are entrenched. He thinks that fighting has been renewed. Maj. Leslie had a parley yesterday. The Indians reported fifteen killed and six who will die in a little while. They said: "I am a cowboy and Foote, Utes will put on soldiers' clothes." They demanded the return of their horses. Maj. Leslie stated that the horses will be given up if Colorado and the two indicted Indians were surrendered. This they positively rejected, and the pow-wow broke up. The courier on his way back to Meeker says there were about 100 Indians in the fight, but that during the night and the following morning they received reinforcements, and the country was alive with them. (Signed) Major Commanding.

UTES REPORTED ON THE RESERVATION.

DENVER (Colo.), Aug. 30.—Information is just received that all the Indians have been taken to the reservation by troops, except a few old men and women, who were left behind to care for the wounded who were unable to be moved. The report, however, is not confirmed.

GOV. ADAMS ARRIVED AT CAMP ADAMS LAST NIGHT.

Gov. Adams was expected some time today. Adams has sent a courier to Colorado, to ask him to meet himself and Crook in a peace council.

COLORADO AUTHORITIES BLAMED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Gen. Terry telegraphs from Chicago to the War Department today requesting that Agent Byrnes be instructed to move from his reservation all intruders, civil and military. The authorities of Colorado in their excitement, he says, may forget that State writs do not extend beyond the limits of the State, and precipitate a general outbreak of reservation Indians by crossing the border. Telegraphic instructions were sent this afternoon by the President to Gov. Adams to confine the action of the civil authorities strictly within the limits of the State.

HOW THE UTES WERE PLUNDERED.

Gen. Terry also telegraphs from Chicago to the Adjutant General that he has received a dispatch from Commander Handlett dated at Fort Duchesne, saying:

"Colorado and his followers are now at the Ouray agency and manifest a disposition to remain on the reservation. The militia and cowboys hold hundreds of horses and thousands of sheep and goats belonging to Colorado and Chipeta. Ouray's widow. This stock was grazing on land claimed by the Indians as belonging to their reservation, and where they had been permitted by their agent to live. Colorado and his followers have claimed location there and have succeeded in driving the Indians in. Colorado has not in this trouble been on the war-path, and has not used force, but has been avoiding hostilities as far as possible."

STILL YEARNING.

The N.C.B. Crazy for the Santa Fe Road.

[San Francisco Chronicle.]

It is evident that the northern boom is about to precipitate the intended advent of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad. The visit of the party of Atchison officials up to the head of the night ago is bearing fruit, and the initial move in the open field may be expected at any time.

Maj. George H. Bonebrake, a director of the California Central, and known as the most conspicuous Atchison man in Southern California, put in an appearance on the scene yesterday with a number of associates, whose names could not be learned, as they were in hiding somewhere in the city or in Oakland. All the indications point to a break somewhere along the line, and the Atchison's secret kept so involuntarily here for the past few months will soon be a secret no longer.

The information was received yesterday by a Chronicle reporter from private sources that Chief Engineer Peris, of the California Central and Southern lines, would send Engineer White, of San Diego, to Oakland this week. White will arrive in the course of forty-eight hours on Wednesday. The programme is to begin work at once on one of the lines authorized for construction under the articles of incorporation of the "Woodland Short Line," as it is now called in the Atchison franchise.

The survey will be finished by these engineers in lieu of the party of Engineer W. F. Bordman, which has been taken off to survey town lots on the 513-acre tract known as the Laundry Farm.

When this comparatively insignificant piece of road has been surveyed, under cover of its construction, a survey will be run westward from Seminary Park along the mud flats at the south side of Oakland harbor. Beyond the harbor details, nothing is known of what the surveying party will do across the bay, although it is surmised that the "and elsewhere" clause in the articles of incorporation of the Laundry Farm line will be made to cover a great deal of territory east of Fruitvale and extending southward beyond Hayward.

In railroad circles it was whispered yesterday that Maj. Bonebrake's mission here was to depose J. H. Woodard, president of the new line, the one having arrived when his services as a dummy official and a figure-head were no longer required. It was reported that Woodard would be made a very ordinary director of the company, while Bonebrake would assume the presidency and begin the work of construction with a rush.

President Woodard was seen at the Palace last evening and closely questioned regarding the rumor. His only reply to all questions asked under this head was:

"If I am to be deposed by Atchison officials, I don't know it yet."

Then he changed the subject to the prospects of the Wabash road, of which he is still the agent on this coast.

"HOLD THE FORT."

Authentic Account of the Origin of the Famous Expression.

In a recent issue the Democrat of this place endeavors to discredit Gen. Vandever's connection with the dispatch "Hold the Fort," signalled from Kennesaw to Allatoona in 1864. We have waited until we could get the facts in the case from original documents, and we now present them, giving a true account of the matter which accords with our statements made last year. Official documents of the War Department, embodied in reports on the conduct of the war, show the following facts:

Soon after Sherman took possession of Atlanta in the fall of 1864, the shattered fragments of the Rebel army were united under a new commander, Gen. Hood. He led them back across the Chattahoochee river, and moved upon Sherman's line of communications, designed no doubt to recover lost ground, and to deter the Union army from further advances into the heart of the Confederacy. The rebels struck and demolished the railway and telegraph line in Sherman's rear between Kennesaw and Allatoona. A million rations of hard bread were stored at the latter place, guarded by a small Union force. The rebels, under Col. Tourtelotte of the Fourth Minnesota, so valuable a prize was not to be overlooked by Hood's poorly provisioned army, and French's Division was accordingly sent to capture it.

Sherman was telegraphed to by Vandever as follows: "ATLANTA, Oct. 3, 1864. 'To Gen. Vandever. If you have reason to believe that the enemy has passed over the Etowah by Dallas and below Allatoona, get a courier through to Kennesaw to put them on their guard, and to pass the word on to Kingston and Rome. Let them know that I will follow. Send the same by signal. Please answer.' (Signed) T. SHERMAN, 'Major-General.'"

The enemy having possession of the country between Kennesaw and Allatoona, it was found impracticable to get a courier through. Vandever, therefore, signalled from the summit of Kennesaw to Allatoona, over the heads of the rebels, an air-line distance of nearly twenty miles, as follows: "Commanding Officer at Allatoona: Sherman is moving in force. Hold out. 'Brigadier-General.'"

At a later hour of the same day Vandever again signalled: "Commanding Officer, Allatoona: Gen. Sherman says, 'Hold fast, we are coming.' W. VANDEVER, 'Brigadier-General.'"

Notice was also signalled to be passed on by telegraph to Rome, and he was directed to proceed by cars with this command to the summit of Allatoona. Rome was prompt to obey the order, and arrived in time to save the hard tack and the garrison, driving back the enemy after one of the most gallant fights of the war.

The expression, "Hold the fort for I am coming," embodied in one of the most popular and stirring hymns of the day, unquestionably owes its origin to the above circumstances. No other credit is claimed for Vandever in relation to this despatch than that he promptly performed a plain and obvious duty in forwarding notice as directed by Sherman. "Honor to whom honor is due."

Why They Smiled. (Puck.)

Young Ted Castle—Quite a lot of girls smiled at me on my way down the avenue. Just now, Jack, charming girls they were, too.

Jack—I don't wonder they smiled, Teddy; your necktie, is way round under your ear.

False Returns. (Detroit Free Press.)

"Let me have a couple of gallons of good whisky."

"Why, we don't keep any whisky in stock."

"What do you mean, then, by advertising that you have a complete line of fishing tackle?"

Let Us Suggest. (Chicago Tribune.)

A country exchange records the birth of a boy in the family of a man named Musgo. If not too late permit us to suggest Higgins as a suitable name to bestow on this boy.

Too Many for Contemplation. (New York Tribune.)

Over 1,000,000 fish poles are imported into this country annually by one firm. Just think what a number of fish lies this represents!

Lends It Significance. (Life.)

The rumor that Lord Tennyson wrote: "Britons, Hold Your Own," while crossing the Channel gives an additional significance to the poem.

The Highest Authority.

William Hammond Hall, the State Engineer, who has had years of experience in water in California, after a full examination of the Rancho Ex-Mission de San Fernando reports to the owners of the property, the Porter Land and Water Company, as follows: "You have 10,000 to 11,000 acres, and perhaps more, of really first-rate valley lands for cultivation, with soils not to be surpassed for fertility and desirability by those of any section; being very favorably for irrigation, and in a neighborhood whose climate is well-adapted to the best class of agricultural, horticultural and vineyard productions usual in this country."

Mr. Hall has been employed by the company to devise a complete plan for the irrigation of the tract with the waters flowing from San Fernando, Sycamore and Pacoima creeks, and from the immense cienegas located upon the ranch, and the public may expect the finest water system in California upon this property. Office, Room No. 9, Los Angeles National Bank building, corner First and Spring streets. A man always at San Fernando, with conveyances, to show the property.

WONG CHIN FOO TELLS WHY THE CHINAMAN IS ONE.

His Caustic Criticism of the Ways and Practices of Christians—"We Heathen Are a God-Fearing Race"—The Golden Rule.

[Wong Chin Foo in North American Review.] In the first place, my faith does not teach me predestination, or that my life is what the gods have long fore-ordained, but is what I make it myself, and, naturally, much of this depends on the way I live.

Unlike Christianity, "our" church is not eager for converts; but, like Freemasonry, we think our religious doctrine strong enough to attract the seekers after light and truth to offer themselves without urging, or proselyting efforts. It preeminently teaches me to mind my own business, to be contented with what I have, to possess a mind that is tranquil, and a body at ease at all times—in a word it says: "Whatever you would not that others should do unto you do not even so unto them." We believe that if we are not able to do anything good, we should do nothing at all to harm them. This is better than the restless Christian doctrine of ceaseless action. Idleness is no wrong when actions fail to bring forth fruits of merit. It is these fruitless trials of one thing after another that produce so much trouble and misery in Christian society.

If my shoe factory employs 500 men and gives an annual profit of $10,000, why should I substitute machinery therein by the use of which I need only 100 men, thus not only throwing 400 contented, industrious men into misery, but making myself more miserable by heavier responsibilities, with possibly LESS PROFIT.

We heathen believe in the happiness of a common humanity, while the Christian's only practical belief is to be money-making (golden calf worshiping), and there is more money to be made by being "in the swim" as a Christian than by being a heathen. Even a Christian preacher makes more money in one year than a heathen banker in two. I do not blame them for their money-making, but for their way of making it.

If we do anything charitable we do not advertise it like the Christians, nor do we suppress knowledge of meritorious acts of others to humor our vanity or gratify our spleen. An instance of this was conspicuous during the Memphis yellow-fever epidemic a few years ago, and when the Chinese were virtually persecuted all over the United States. Chinese merchants in China donated $40,000 at that time to the relief of the plague-stricken Memphis, but the Christian swallowed the sweet morsel without a "thank you." But they did advertise it strongly, all over the world, when they paid $137,000 to the Chinese Government as petty compensation for the massacre of twenty-three Chinamen by civilized American Christians, and for robbing these and other poor heathen of their earthly possessions.

China has a national history of at least 4000 years, and had a printed history 3500 years before a European discovered the art of type-printing. In the course of national existence our race has passed, like others, through mythology, superstition, withereth, established religion, to philosophical religion. We have been "blessed" with at least half a dozen religions; more than any other nation. None of them were rational enough to become the abiding faith of an intelligent people; but when we began to reason we succeeded in making society better and its government more protective, and our great reasoner, Confucius, reduced our various social and religious ideas into book form and so perpetuated them.

China, with its teeming population of 400,000,000, is demonstration enough of the satisfactory result of this religious evolution. Where else can it be paralleled? Call us heathen, if you will, the Chinese are STILL SUPERIOR.

In social administration and social order. Among 400,000,000 of Chinese there are fewer murders and robberies in a year than there are in New York State.

The difference between the heathen and the Christian is that the heathen does good for the sake of doing good. With the Christian, what little good he does he does it for immediate honor and future reward; he lends to the Lord and wants compound interest. In fact, the Christian is the worthy heir of his religious ancestors.

The heathen does much and says little about it; the Christian does little good, but when he does he wants it in the papers and on his tombstone.

When the English wanted the Chinaman's gold and trade, they said they wanted "to open China for their missionaries." And opium was the chief, in fact, only, missionary they looked after when they forced the ports open. And this infamous Christian introduction among Chinamen has done more injury, social and moral, in China than all the humanitarian agencies of Christianity could remedy in 200 years. And on you, Christians, and on your greed of gold, we lay the burden of crime resulting; of tens or millions of honest, useful men and women sent thereby to premature death, after a short, miserable life, besides the physical and moral prostration it entails, even where it does not prematurely kill! And this great national curse was thrust on us at the point of Christian bayonets. And you wonder why we are heathen?

We heathen are a God-fearing race. Aye, we believe the whole universe—whatever exists and has existed—is of God and in God; that, figuratively, the thunder is His voice and the lightning His mighty hands; that everything we do and contemplate doing is seen and known by Him, that He has created this and other worlds to effect beneficent, not meretricious, designs, and that all that He has done is for the steady, progressive benefit of the creatures whom He endowed with life and sensibility, and to whom, as a consequence, He owes and gives paternal care, and will give paternal compensation and justice; yet His voice will threaten and His hand will chastise those who deliberately disobey His sacred laws and their duty to their fellow-man.

"Do unto others as you wish others would do unto you," or "Love your neighbor as yourself," is the great Divine law which Christians and heathen alike hold, but which the Christians ignore.

This is what keeps me the heathen I am! and I earnestly invite the Christians of America to come to Confucius.

The Cheapest Land in Pasadena. The Raymond Improvement Company tract, in front of the Raymond Hotel, is being constructed, and it is having the effect of creating a boom in the lands surrounding that hotel. The Raymond Improvement Company has its first subdivision ready, and they offer the cheapest lots in Pasadena for sale. The lots are selling very fast. Smith & Jacobs, who are the shrewdest speculators in Pasadena, purchased 115 lots in this tract at one time last week. They propose to build houses and mark up the lots to about double the company's present prices, and purchasers may look for a general marking up in a short time. Fair Oaks avenue is the widest street on the tract, and Smith & Jacobs intend to build a handsome business block. Four elegant cottages already constructed for. An electric road from Los Angeles to the tract is already under headway, and the company has also agreed to give the right of way and a bonus to another road, which will run from the Raymond Hotel, through their land, to Long Beach. Apply to Raymond Improvement Company, room 10, Los Angeles National Bank building, corner First and Spring streets.

Go and See the Colony Lands! Prospective purchasers of land and town lots in the Co-operative Colony tract, desiring to visit the land, should take the 9:40 a.m. train from Los Angeles to Compton. Call at the colony office before starting, and procure tickets for the carriage ride. Rooms 3 and 4, Newell block, West Second street.

"Hello! old fellow. What have you been doing to yourself? You look like a subject for the undertaker," exclaimed the man on the right.

"I have been taking mercury and potash mixtures until they have nearly ruined me," quivered the old man on crutches.

"And I," said the other, "have been taking the genuine Swift's Specific, which has built me up from the first dose."

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC. Nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half-breed from the Creek Indians, who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The demand has been increasing until a $100,000 laboratory is now necessary to supply the trade. A foreign demand has been created, and enlarged facilities will be necessary to meet it. This great Corner First and Spring sts., entrance on First st., is now fitted up, at considerable expense, with everything that is necessary to cure chronic and so-called incurable diseases by the finest electrical apparatus in the world. Turkish and Russian baths; also Electric, Sulphur and Eucalyptus baths. Dr. Robbins has had several years' experience in the Australian colonies, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Denver, and five years in Los Angeles; and hundreds of leading citizens can testify to the wonderful effects of electricity in curing cases of chronic diseases when all else had failed, and therefore all persons suffering should try this new remedy before abandoning all hope. After every medical treatment the patients are given the Massage treatment by persons of their own sex. The doctor diagnoses diseases without explanation from the patient. His office hours are from 9 to 12, 1 to 5 and 7 to 9.

Also, nearly 100 lots in the Hafen tract, on Central avenue. This beautiful tract was put on the market last week. It is near the intersection of Pico and Wolfkill street (now Central avenue). Remember, these lots are not out of the world, but near the center of the city. EIGHTY EIGHT AVENUE, FIVE-FOOT CEMENT WALKS. Lots 40x150 feet; alley to every lot, and a key lot in the tract. Lots $750 to $1200; easy terms. At these prices the lots are CHEAPER THAN THE ACREAGE CAN BE BOUGHT FOR ADJOINING. Don't hang back on these chances. Inside property from first hands is almost gone. Strangers, especially, should call and see this tract. I am headquarters for Michigan and Wisconsin, and would like a call from my lumbermen friends.

RANCHES.

201 acres near San Jose; fine, level tract of foothill land; small fruit orchard; house and barn; this property will soon double in price, as it is in Greenfield neighborhood; price, $1500 per acre.

20-acre ranch near Gilroy, on main gravel road and on railroad; this is a bargain if taken soon, if not you lose it; price, $100 per acre.

Here is the rare bargain of the season—1500 acres near Hollister; on good gravel road; all fine fruit and alfalfa land and A. 1, with seven flowing wells, the water-right of which is a fortune, for Santa Clara valley must have it. These wells throw a six-inch stream thirteen feet above ground, and is the sweetest water in California. I invite inspection of this tract by parties who have money and judgment. I have personally inspected these ranches, and can assure you I have selected them for their merit.

If you have any acreage property that is a good buy, bring it in. My Kansas City men will put the knife into it quick. I want real, live BARGAINS to offer my customers.
